

Data protection

In the following, we, AGOFORM GmbH, with our business premises at Gewerbestr. 27 in 32584 Löhne, Germany, phone: +49 5731 7800-0, E-Mail info@agoform.de explain what data of yours we process and how. If you have any questions about privacy, our external data protection officer, Thomas Werning, will be happy to help on teamdatenschutz@werning.com or by phone on: +49 5232 696555-8.

The purpose, legal basis and duration of data processing, and the different kinds of recipients:

We process data in order to initiate and to implement contracts.

The legal basis for the processing of personal data is as follows:

- 6 para. 1(a) General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) regarding the processing of personal data with the consent of the person concerned.
- 6 para. 1(b) GDPR regarding the necessary processing of personal data in order to meet the needs of entry into a contract with the person concerned, and also in order to carry out relevant pre-contractual measures.
- 6 para. 1(c) GDPR regarding the necessary processing of personal data in order to fulfil a legal obligation to which we are subject in accordance with any applicable EU law or in accordance with any applicable law of a country in which the GDPR either fully or partially applies.
- 6 para. 1 (f) GDPR regarding the necessary processing of personal data in order to protect our legitimate interests or those of third parties, unless the fundamental freedoms and fundamental rights and interests of the person concerned outweigh these. Eligible interests are, in particular, our business interest in being able to display our website, information security, enforcement of our legal claims and compliance with further legal provisions.

Storage duration and deletion of data

Your data will be stored for the duration of the contract; we are legally required to keep your data for 10 years from the end of the year, after the end of the contract, for tax purposes. The data is then deleted.

The different recipients of your data

As part of the provision of our services, for certain areas we make use of service companies that are committed to confidentiality and to maintaining privacy; access to your personal data by these companies cannot be excluded.

These different kinds of recipients are:

- Processors employed by us (Article 28 EU GDPR), in particular in the area of IT services, taxes and logistics, who process your data according to our instructions
- Public authorities and institutions (tax authorities) in the presence of a legal or regulatory obligation
- Other bodies for which you have given us your consent to the transfer of data.

Information is only transferred to authorities where priority legislation requires this.

Right to information, correction, deletion, objection and to data portability

You can, at any time, exercise your right to information, correction and deletion of data. Just contact us in the ways described above. Insofar as you wish your data to be deleted, access to it data will be restricted (blocked) if we are legally obliged to keep it. The same applies to an objection you may have to the storage of your data. Insofar as both we and the recipient have the means to implement this, you have the right to the transmissibility of your data.

Right of complaint

You are entitled, at any time, to lodge a complaint with a data protection supervisory authority to the North Rhine-Westphalia regional commissioner for data protection and freedom of information, for example, who is responsible for us: www.ldi.nrw.de

Information requirement

Without the correct information, it will not be possible to enter into a contract with you.

PRIVACY NOTICE TO CUSTOMERS, SUPPLIERS/SERVICE PROVIDERS AND OTHER BUSINESS PARTNERS

We process data that we receive in the course of our business dealings with you. This data is received directly from you when you initiate contact with us, make inquiries, place orders, and also when we process orders.

More specifically, we process the following in order to carry out our services:

- Master data required for the implementation and fulfilment of the service. (eg. name and address, e-mail address, telephone numbers)
- Payment processing data
- Correspondence (eg. exchanges of letters or e-mail with you)
- Advertising and sales data (eg. about new potentially interesting offers or inquiries)

PRIVACY NOTICE TO CANDIDATES

You provide us with different types of information as part of your application. This includes in particular your personal data with contact information as well as details of your education, work experience and skills. In addition, you have the option of providing us with documents such as certificates or cover letters.

By applying, you are giving an assurance that the information you provide is true.

We do not require any information from you that is private under the General Equal Treatment Act (race, ethnic origin, gender, religion or belief, disability, age or sexual identity). We also do not ask you to provide information on any illness, pregnancy, ethnic origin, political beliefs, philosophical or religious beliefs, trade union membership, physical or mental health or sex life. The same applies to data content that might infringe the rights of third parties (eg, copyright, press rights or general rights of third parties).

Gathering, processing, use and forwarding of your application data

Your personal data will only be gathered, stored, processed and used for purposes in connection with your interest in current or future employment with us and processing of your application. We do not pass data onto third parties. Data such as your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, etc. are gathered when you use our online application process. This data is basically used in order to contact you regarding your application.

Application will only be taken note of and processed by the relevant contact persons. All employees are under an obligation to maintain the confidentiality of your data. We do not share your information with third parties. The data is processed exclusively in Germany.

Storage of your application data

If we cannot offer you employment, we will retain the information you provide for up to six months for the purpose of answering questions related to your application and its unsuccessful outcome.

If your application documents are nevertheless generally of interest and there is currently no suitable employment available, you hereby consent to the storage and provision of your data with a view to receiving future job offers.

If your application is successful, data you have provided may be used as the basis for the information we hold on your employment.

PRIVACY NOTICE TO VISITORS TO OUR WEBSITE (<https://www.agoform.de>) or referring aliases.

We process data in order to be able to provide information about our company and its products and services, and also to enable the user to purposefully contact the relevant persons in our company.

If you send us inquiries via the contact form, your details from the inquiry form, including the contact details you provide there, will be stored in order to process the request and for use in the event of follow-up questions. We will not share this information with other parties without your consent.

A connection to your browser is made when you visit our website. The webpage provider automatically collects and stores information in so-called server log files, which your browser automatically transmits to us. This information is as follows:

- IP address, host name of the accessing device
- Date and time of access
- Name and URL of retrieved files
- Website from which the access was made or from which you were directed to our webpage (Referrer URL)

- The browser and its version number
- The operating system used by your device
- Name of your provider

The above data are processed by us for the purpose of smooth connection and system security. These data cannot be assigned to specific persons. This data will not be merged with that of other data sources. The resulting connection data is automatically deleted, usually within a maximum of seven days. If the website is misused, log data that is required for further evidence will be retained until the incident is resolved.

We use Google Maps in order to embed maps in our website, and YouTube to embed videos (in accordance with Art. 6, para. 1(f) GDPR regarding the running of our website, while taking the interests of those concerned into consideration, by deactivating the tracking functions in the YouTube code). In the US, Google LLC is committed to providing reasonable privacy under the US-European Privacy Shield. More information can be found in Google's detailed Privacy Policy.

Data security / encryption

For security purposes, and in order to protect the transmission of sensitive content such as requests you send us as the site operator, this site uses the SSL-encrypted Hypertext Transfer Protocol Secure (https). The connection between your browser and our server is encrypted. Evidence of an encrypted connection can be seen from the changeover from an http:// to an https:// address in your browser, together with the display of a lock symbol in your browser line.

Plugins and tools

Google Web Fonts

This site uses so-called web fonts, provided by Google, for uniform font display. When you call up a page, your browser loads the required web fonts into your browser cache in order to display texts and fonts correctly.

To do this, your browser must connect to Google's servers. As a result, Google learns that our website has been accessed via your IP address. We use Google web fonts in the interest of consistent and attractive presentation of our online services. This constitutes a legitimate interest within the meaning of Art. 6 para. 1(f) GDPR.

Your computer uses a default font if your browser does not support web fonts.

For more information about Google web fonts, see <https://developers.google.com/fonts/faq> and also Google's privacy policy at: <https://www.google.com/policies/privacy/>

Updates and changes to our privacy policy

We reserve the right to modify the content of this Privacy Policy at any time. This is usually done with further development or adaptation of the services used.
